Description

The 22 Steber Persuader is an excellent entry level weekender with everything needed for those relaxing overnights by yourself or with a friend. This boat is clean and well looked after, unfortunately when listing we discovered the neat little 30 Volvo diesel was low on compression and the price reflects this. If your handy with engines this Steber could be the perfect addition to the family. These 22 Steber Persuader's are easily trailered if your plan includes exploring the beautiful waterways Australia has to offer. She has a very neat V berth double and an enclosed toilet, has a lovely feel as she glides through the water. It is a great weekender that wont break the bank.
