Description

This 1988 Ranger Flybridge has beautiful lines. The accommodation is huge with Large V berth with island bed and your own One suite with separate Shower. On the port side Double bunk cabin and starboard another double bunk cabin and the second Head and separate shower for your guests and family. The Galley is large with gas oven and microwave, The refrigeration needs an upgrade. The saloon is comfortable and a great entertainment area. She has a good helm position and helm door to the walk around decks. The Cockpit is roomy with stainless refrigeration that needs gassing. The large stairs make it easy access to the flybridge. The canopy needs replacing after a recent storm. There is 3 large solar panels that usually sit on the flybridge roof. The starboard engine has had its head removed and there is two new heads available and heaps of spares. She needs some love but is a great design and would make a great live aboard.
